

Peace Poems

Forgiveness is not easy
Olive branch
Red is for remembrance
Give a present
Is the war over?
Villains forgotten
Everlasting

Symbols remind us of peace
Olive branch is what the dove carries
Remembrance of the dead, and what we are fighting over
Red poppies symbolise the blood that was shed
Yesterday's nightmare is today's future.

Differences are settled.
Offerings we give
Victorious together as we clean up the mess
Everyone is peaceful.

Poppies swaying in the field
Onlooking the stars
Peacefully watching the tide come in
Playing games with remote control cars
I love relaxing in the England sun.
Sleeping and dreaming all night long.
