Need chairs, ta - bles, knives, forks, and spoons.

The mar - quee's fal - len down and lan - ded on the ground; ev' - ry - bo - dy needs to help to put it back up.

FOOD Menuet

With rhubarb and custard, and pig roast too,
 and sausage and salad and tomatoes as well.
 with grapes and bananas and apples in stew; [on repeat of first part]
 The queen finds it delicious, and we do too.

We will need some tables and chairs for the guests,
 with cutlery made of silver and gold.

With rhubarb and custard, and pig roast too...

Trio

We chop up the carrots, and cucumber too;
 Add bright red tomatoes, and that will do.
 Acc: Chop it, Cut it, Toss it, Taste it.

We have run out of food; Oh, what are we to do
 Call Sainsbury's to help, and bring lots more food.

We chop up the carrots, and cucumber too;

ETIQUETTE/ MANNERS Menuet

Remember your manners when the queen comes to tea.
 so curtsy, bow and don't turn your back. [repeat]

A limousine driver, red carpet and throne with servants, and flowers and a royal song.
 Remember your manners when the queen comes to tea...

Trio

Remember the royal red carpet and throne
 Remember the Queen's private bathroom – for her
 Acc: Ready, re-member, Get set, Then go.

There's a snake in the loo; oh what shall we do?
 With spiders and cobwebs, and flies buzzing through.
 Remember the royal red carpet and throne...

CAKE Menuet

We've got the ingredients to make a cake.
 It will be magnificent and gorgeous and great.
 With strawberry layers and chocolate too;
 Mix butter and eggs and sugar and flour.

We've got the ingredients to make a cake...

Trio

We can weigh it and stir it and pour it all in;
 It bakes in the oven until it goes DING!
 Acc: Looks good, Yummy, Well done, Scrumptious.

This cake has shrunk a lot and that one's got a lump
 Look, this one's much better for the queen.

We can weigh it and stir it and pour it all in....
